Table of contents

Teresa Nalé Collection

3
Teresa Nalé Collection

Collection ID  ARCH00916
Creator  Nalé, Teresa
Extent  0.65 m.
Language list  English, Spanish

Context

Historical Note
After the take over by the military in 1976 a period of severe repression started in Argentina; as in Uruguay, where the army actually took power in 1973, oppositional organizations and groups were brutally persecuted; numerous people disappeared and were killed by the military.

Content and Structure

Content
Collection of Teresa Nalé consisting of copies of periodicals, photocopies of articles, leaflets and press clippings relating to the Movimiento Peronista Montonero and the Confederación General del Trabajo (CGT) in Argentina; a seminar on the liberation movement in Argentina, South Africa and the Middle East, held in Dar-es-Salaam in 1979; open letters to the military junta and the episcopate in Argentina; lists of victims of the repression; some copies of Noticias de Argentina, Vencer, Política Obrera, Libertades democráticas and Denuncia; press releases of the Uruguayan Partido por la Victoria del Pueblo and some copies of its periodical Compañiero 1978.

Subjects

Geographic Names
Argentina
Uruguay

Organizations
Movimiento Peronista Montonero (Argentina)
Confederacion General de Trabajadores (Argentina)

Themes
Exiles/Political refugees
Human rights organizations
Political prisoners/Political trials

Material Type
Archival material

Access and Use

Access
Not restricted

Preferred Citation
Teresa Nalé Collection, inventory number ..., International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam