

Giovanni Rossi Papers
1896-1897

International Institute of Social History
Cruquiusweg 31
1019 AT Amsterdam
The Netherlands

hdl:10622/ARCH01213

© IISH Amsterdam 2021

Table of contents

Giovanni Rossi Papers.....3

Giovanni Rossi Papers

Collection ID ARCH01213

Creator Rossi, Giovanni

Period 1896-1897

Extent 0.07 m.

Language list English

Language of Material Italian

Context

Biographical Note

Born in Pisa 1856, died in Italy 1943; anarchist, veterinarian; joined the International Working Men's Association (IWMA) in 1873; contributed to local anarchist papers; advocated the creation of socialist communes; arrested in November 1878 charged with subversive activities, stayed in prison until July 1879; founded an agricultural cooperation in Citadella (Cremona) in 1887; left for Brasil in 1890 and founded there the experimental colony Cecilia, which lasted until 1894; directed agricultural stations; returned to Italy in 1907; was employed as a veterinarian and teacher; his publications include 'Un comune socialista' 1876, translated and edited, together with other articles and letters from Rossi and others, by Alfred Sanftleben under the title 'Utopie und Experiment' Zurich 1897.

Acquisition

No information on acquisition available.

Content and Structure

Content

Material collected by Alfred Sanftleben in connection with the publication of 'Utopie und Experiment'. Unpublished handwritten manuscript of 'Socialismo Pratico' by G. Rossi; one letter from G. Rossi to Alfred Sanftleben 1896; copy of printed preface to 'Utopie und Experiment' by A. Sanftleben; some press clippings.

Subjects

Geographic Names

Italy

Brazil

Persons

Sanftleben, Alfred

Organizations

International Working Men's Association

Themes

Anarchist movements
Socialist and social democrat parties/Socialist International Education

Material Type

Archival material

Access and Use

Access

Not restricted

Preferred Citation

Giovanni Rossi Papers , inventory number ..., International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam